ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT December 2001

SAC ... H2P2 Implementation Activities

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| Hawaii | The Hawai'i County SAC is continuing to seek funds for data collection and facilitation efforts to address the transportation issues relating to the behavioral health population. The SAC submitted grant applications to three local foundations. |
| Tri-Isle | The Maui County Dental Health Alliance is continuing to plan for the Children's Dental Health Month (February). The event will be a hands-on dental program for kids. The event will be held at the Queen Kaahumanu Center. The Tri-Isle SAC members will be engaged in a December strategic thinking process to address baby bottle caries in the county. The SAC is encouraging other public and private sector and the community representatives to participate in this process. Mary Hew of Kaiser Permanente will serve as facilitator for the session. |
| Honolulu | Exploring "long term care planning" and "indoor environmental health" as possible next initiative. |
| Windward | Partnership with Windward Oahu Asthma Coalition: The Windward O`ahu Asthma Coalition is continuing its work to seek funds for the Hā Mai I Ke Ola Program (Breath of Life), Open Airways program in the Kahuku-complex of O`ahu. Addressing Hypertension: The SAC is also exploring hypertension and resources available to address it. |
| West Oahu | West O`ahu SAC members will participate in a December strategic thinking process focused on substance abuse. Creighton Liu and Laurie Oishi have designed a planning process that will be used to facilitate strategic discussions. |
| Kauai | No meeting in December. January 2002 agenda – "Health Care Financing" presented by member Lily Bryan-Conant, member. |
